

A morning not like the other

7:40 - Houssen Memorial School, Toliara, Madagascar

The sun of Toliara shone already strong this morning, but at the School Houssen Memorial, the atmosphere was strange. Very strange. In the yard, the students were usually, some played football with an empty bottle, others bigued for a place in the shade. But a rumor was circulating at the speed of lightning: "The door of the 4ED is blocked! Crivy Mialy running to Johary, visibly crafted. Johary, backed by the wall near the refreshment, calmly chewed a candy. He raised an eyebrow, look curious. "Blocked? Kind ... closed to key? "Yes! And the key has disappeared! Ferida added, who followed Mialy closely. "Nobody has it! Even even the main! At once, Johary straightened up, his candy again in the mouth. "Interesting ... very interesting.

7:45 - In front of the room 4ed

A crowd of students had gathered. Fortuné tapped on the door like a madman. "Open yourself, cursed room! Fredo, he watched the scene calmly.

"Maybe the cat still does his needs!" Rodric, sandal by hand, had already started a live: "guys! Look! We are locked out, it's hot here in HMS! Suddenly, madame the main arrived, looks serious, heels slamming on the slabs. "Johary! I need you. Johary advanced, confident like a Marvel movie hero. "Mission accepted. "You have 5 hours. The key has disappeared, no one has seen it. You have to find her before 11:45. Otherwise ... all classes will be canceled and you know what it means: catch-up on Wednesday afternoon! " A thrill traveled the students. Even Andy Brayan, who claimed to be the strongest, blurred. "Not Wednesday ... not Free Fire on Wednesday ..." Murmured Rayan, horrified.

8:00 am - Start of the inquest

Johary survey activated its "detective mode". He pulled out of his pocket a mini notebook and noted: "Missing key. 3 suspects: hoping, Asman, Leon. 5 hours. Objective: Avoid Wednesday afternoon. Meanwhile, Mialy, a good delegate, began to question the witnesses. "Who saw the key for the last time? "I saw Tata (Leon) hanging out to the room at 7:20 am," says Floriane. "And I saw Asman running oddly with a bag full of stuff," Lucia added. "Hoping told me this morning: 'Today, it's total chaos,' deliciously added to the boy with a laugh. Johary smiles. "It stinks the triangle plot, all that ..."

8h30 - Interrogation # 1: Léon

Johary found Leon near the football field, juggling with an invisible ball. "Are you all Tata Zouzou (Leon) at 7:20? "In the courtyard. I was wealthy to fight "Fortuné, who passed by that, confirmed," It's true. He put me Ko! No evidence, but no innocence either.

9h00 - Index: The Mialy flexion card found a notebook page in the corridor, marked "Wednesday afternoon 500 Flections." She showed her in Johary. "Mr Arnel has surely punished someone ..." Johary thought, "If it's bound, maybe the culprit was punished this morning ... and he could have hide the key just after ..."

9h30 - Little detour comic Fortuno, Fredo and Ferida Decided to "monitor" the door of the 4ED by encircling it like ninjas. Floriane launched a "key spotted" alert, and everyone ran ... for nothing. It was just an old rusty trombone. Johary, he, kept his calm. "Stay focused. It is only the beginning ... "

The hurry track

9:45 - central courtyard, Houssen Memorial School

Johary was sitting on a bench, handbook. He scrained a school plan, surrounding the suspect places: the corridor of the lockers (even if there were not), the refreshment, the office of the main, and especially ... the toilet. Mialy approached, followed by delicious and Lucia. They wore croissants. "We brought you back from energy. You have to hold up to 11:45! "Thank you the girls. I formally name you strategic snack agents. While he was crunching in a croissant, Saina arises, sweating, "I have an info! These are croissants you give me. "Tien, what's the info?" I think I saw Asman slip something in the boys' toilet! "Are you sure? Johary asked. "Uh ... 74% sure ... well ... Maybe 60 ..." "It's enough.

10:00 - Toilet mission

With Ferida, Fortuné and Rodric, Johary went to the bathroom. Fortuné, with his overflowing imagination, dressed already in secret agent, head towel as Cape. "Operation Silent Storm activated! They arrived near the toilet. Rodric filmed everything with his sandals. "If you die, I want it to live. Johary approached the English chair and plunged a stick in it. "Nothing ... Just scrubs, a ball ... and ... Wait! He took out a soaked envelope with a single sentence: "The truth is hiding where the school never looks. "OK, now it becomes interesting.

10:20 - Special Meeting in the Library

Mm. Vero, alerted by the Group, lent the library to lead a mini-meeting. All the friends of Johary were there: Mialy, Ferida, Floriane, delicious, Andy Brayan, Rayan, Fredo, Fortuno, Rodric, Saina ... and even Dylan, Alias Paskerera, arrived late. Johary, standing as a Marvel chief, presented the index. "The truth is hiding where the school never looks ... in your opinion, where is it? Andy Brayan launched: "Perhaps in the attic? Floriane replied, "There is no attic in this school ..." Fredo, thoughtful, "said," I never look in the room of P-C ... it's dirty and it stinks. Johary smiled. "So we go there.

10:40 - The scene prohibits the team headed for the P-C room. Behind the door. "It's dirty inside ... who wants to enter? "Me. Johary said without hesitation. He entered. The room was great, dusty ... but deep down, in a cardboard box, he found ... Another envelope. This time, it contained three photos: one of Leon, one of hoping, one of Asman. And a question: "One of them is lying. Which one? Johary remained slowly. "It's a lie hunt now. And I have an idea.

11:00 - The Mialy, Ferida and Dylan Detector's plan helped Johary prepare an interrogation room in the 5B class. "One at a time. Simple questions. We will see who crackles. The game of lies 11:00 - Improvised interrogation room Johary, Ferida, Mialy and Dylan (Alias Pastera) had transformed the inquiry. A table, two chairs, a painting to note the answers, and ... an old tape recorder had found God know where. "Here is the operation: Total Truth Project! Fortuna declared, with too big sunglasses. Delicious and Florian were at the reception: they had to call the suspects one by one. Fredo, with his calm, had to note the reactions of the suspects. Rayan and Rodric, hooked up near the window, watched the corridors. First suspect: Hoping he entered smiling too much. "I'm innocent! I swear on my math notebooks! Johary remained calm. "Where were you between 6:30 and 7:45 this morning? "I was ... uh ... at the bar. Yes I do. I ate a mofo game. Fredo looked up: "The refreshment bar is only open from 8:00. Hoping to swallow his saliva. "Ah uh ... I confused the schedules? Johary noted: on the morning - suspect confirmed. Second suspect: Leon Leon entered the feet dragging, looking away. "Why would I have stolen a key? I do not even want to worked elsewhere. "But you are often with Asman, right? Mialy asked. "Yeah. We are training together. But this morning I was with my little brother. He paid yogurt on my uniform. Ferida looked at Leon's T-shirt. No trace. "Have you changed t-shirt? "No. He evaporated. Johary looked up at heaven. Third suspect: Asman Asman entered confidence. "I did nothing. It is surely hoping. He is weird today. "Why are you saying that? "He asks me weird questions. "Where did you get the thing?", I thought he was talking about the basketball ... "Everyone looked at each other. Asman may have swing a real index without wanting. "The ball? Which balloon? "The one we put in the cabinet near the kindergarten class.

11:25 - The closet of the mystery

The whole team ran to the famous wardrobe. Andy Brayan, who until then did the clever saying he would have already found the key, joined them: "You need me to do the dirty job, as usual. He opened the door. Nothing. Just brooms ... and ... a deflated balloon. Johary shook him ... and heard a metal noise. "Oh! He cut a small opening in the ball (with the agreement of everyone of course) ... and went out: the key of the 4^e D. Explosion of Cris, Applause, and Fortuné shouted: "It's good guys, we are rich! Finally, almost ...!

11:35 - In front of the main Johary, accompanied by all his friends, handed the key to the main one. "Mission accomplished, Madam. She smiles. "You know Johary ... I always knew you were special. But here you have just saved a whole day of classes. Congratulations. "And now? Ferida asked. "Now ... you all return to class. "What? !!

11:45 - Classroom 4th D

The door was opened. Everyone finally found his business. Johary settled on his chair, tired but proud. Mialy handed him a candy. "For the funniest and most serious investigator in the world. He smiled. "And it's just the beginning ..."

Good time and end of the day

the key finally found, students entered as heroes. Everyone ran to his bag, his notebooks, his taste forgotten. Johary, him, leaned at his table, arms crossed, the air of the one who saved the world. Mialy, Ferida and Dylan (PASTERA) made an exaggerated reverence. "Johary Detective, at the service of the school! Mialy laughing. "One day you will be in the newspapers! Ferida added. Ms. Vero, who had returned to finish the French course, entered with a smile: "Well, my dear investigators, we can finally do some grammar? Everyone growled. "Come on, just a little exercise ... in honor of the hero of the day! She wrote a sentence on the board: "Johary found the key thanks to ..." "To his great friends! Fortuné cries. "To his legendary flair! Fredo added. "To my incredible corridor monitoring. Rayan, falsely modest. "At Free Fire! Rodric shouted, which blew all the class laugh.

12:00 - in front of the school

La Cloche rang. End of adventure. End of the day. The students went out in a group, laughing, speaking of this mystery of the key as if they had just played in a Marvel movie. Johary, alone in front of the feenberry, looked at the sky of Toliara. Mialy approached. "Are not you coming back? "Yes. But I like that something is wrong ..." What's still? Another key? A disappearance? "No. Just a word ... that I found at the bottom of the closet ...

"He took a crumpled paper from his pocket. Mialy read aloud: "It was only a test. The real mission starts soon. Prepare you. - M "They looked at each other. "You think ..." she began. "Yes ... it was just the beginning. Johary replied with a smile. To follow ...
