

Chapter 1 - The Forced Union

The wind blew gently on the school yard. The atmosphere was strange, tense, almost electric. Johary watched his comrades: Ferida, Andy Brayan, Lucia, Fredo, Fortuno, Saina ... They were there, tired, weakened, but still standing. They had failed to defeat the organization in the previous volume. And now, a rumor was circulating: M that we thought disappeared, was back. > "If it's true ... We have no luck alone," Murmured Leydisia. It was then that Clairia, the charismatic delegate of the 4EB, proceeded calmly. On his right, Tiavina (Lucia's sister) glanced. The students of the 4eb were in training behind them. > "Do you need help? So we are here. Johary sank a smile. The Union of Classes finally became reality: 4ED, 4EC and now the 4B. Sylvio, the delegate, crossed his arms. > "But we will not follow a shrine plan. Clairia leads our group. Térason, his vice, added:> "We must rethink our entire strategy. M is not an amateur ... "Riccardo, the 4EC group, nodded. > "M is unpredictable. He never acts without reason. While all debated, Y, the infiltrated spy, remained silent, set back. His gaze was worried. He knew Mr. He knew what he was capable of. And if m was coming back, it was that something bigger was preparing ...

Chapter 2 - The message of the shadow

The night fell on the school. The buildings seemed darker than usual, as if the establishment itself knew that something dangerous planted. Johary, sitting in the 4D room with Aaron, Lucia, Fredo, Kaissy and Clairia, read a letter he had found slipped into his locker. > "You can not stop what happens. You lost before you even start. - M" Lucia frowned. > "He plays with our nerves ... " Aaron, always calm but strategic, analyzed:> "If it sends us this message, it is he knows that we gathered the forces. He observes us. Meanwhile, in the deserted corridors of the administrative building, I found Jt. The latter, dressed in his dark blue suit, remained in the shadow, silent as always. > "You failed to brake Johary and his friends. It's time to activate the Zero plan. "I understand," JT murmured. "I'm going to contact the agents of the alphabet. Ms slowly nodded, then added: "And Tell Pytha that he should divert their attention during classes. It is time for teachers to resume control. The next morning, in room 4b, Clairia brings together the leaders: Aaron for the 4EC Johary for the 4ED itself for the 4eb Tiavina approached discreetly from Lucia:> "I heard rumors ... Someone among us could be manipulated by M without knowing it. Lucia replaced. > "Do you think who? But Tiavina did not have an answer. She felt him only. And while they were trying to organize, in the shadow ... M observed everything.

Chapter 3 - Secret Meetings

On Saturday afternoon, while the school was closed, Johary, Aaron, Clairia, and the key members of the 4eb, 4EC and 4ED classes were found in the 2nds room. They now called it "the base". Around the table: Johary, at the head of the Squad J Aaron, strategic brain Clairia, the diplomat of 4eb Lucia, the observer Fredo, Rayan, Rodric, Saina ... All ready to act helena, Hasinina, Djulianne, Sylvio, Térason, Fenitra, Noah H., Kaisey, Jenny, Titan, and many more Clairia spoke: "Our classes are united now. What we need is a concrete plan. Térason, sitting in front of Aaron, calmly added: "The organization is structured. We need to aim for the database they use to control teachers. Lucia lifted an eyebrow. > "Do you want to talk about the black server? Tiavina replied:> "Yes. Mialy told me that the main suspects something ... but she is monitored. Johary got up. > "So we act. First, infiltration. Fandresena, Lucia and Leydisia will seek access. Then, we block Pytha, their pawn inside. But suddenly, the soil vibra. An alarm. A metal voice has resonated from a hidden speaker: "Here your meetings are just children's games. You are observed. One of you already belongs to us. Frozen silence invades the room. All exchanged suspicious looks. Who? Who among them would be a pawn without knowing it?

Chapter 4 - Semiance

The message of M had sown a deep disorder in the ranks. In the base, the atmosphere became heavy. Everyone watched each other with doubt. Who was the spy? Who betray them? Rodric, arms crossed, launched: "He bluffs. It may be just to get nanned. But Lucia, more suspicious, replied:> "And if he said the truth? And if one of us brought him everything ... from the beginning? Aaron Tapa on the table: "We must not split. That's exactly what he wants. Sylvio, the delegate of the 4EB, took the floor of a firm tone: "We do not know each other, but we have a common goal. We must trust each other ... until proven otherwise. During this time, there, always infiltrated in the organization, felt the pressure rise. The return of M worried him. M was much smarter, colder than King T now. He knew how to manipulate without being. Even Y, experienced spy, could not break his intentions. At the recreation of the following Monday, Tiavina, worried, discussed with his sister Lucia. > "Be careful. I feel that someone observes you all the time. Lucia looked around, crossing the eyes of Noah H., who quickly turned away. Was it shame ... or something else? In the evening, in a secret room of the school, M and JT discussed. > JT: "They are organizing itself quickly. But they are still young. Too emotional. "> M:" So strike where it hurts. Demoralizes them. Pause Doubt in their hearts. And do not forget ... Watch Lucia. It's the key. JT nodded, his face masked by the shadow.

Chapter 5 - Fractures

Fine rain fell on the yard. In one of the classrooms, Johary, Aaron, Clairia, Lucia, and Tiavina were gathered with the leaders of each group. The taupe investigation continued. The tension was rising. > Aaron: "Someone transmits us. Plan has been changed three times, and M is always a step in front. "> Fandresena:" I analyzed the messages intercepted. They are coded. But style ... it reminds me of someone. > Leydisia: "Do not accuse without proof. If you are mistaken, you destroy the confidence we have left. During this time, JT observed since the cameras he had secretly installed in the school. In his underground lair, he smiled coldly. > JT: "Soon they will no longer know who to trust. He regularly communicated with M, now TAPI in the shadow of the organization. M remains invisible, but his orders were clear: isolate Johary. In the group, the conflicts burst. Saina accused Riccardo to disappear too often. Jessica thought Teddy hid something. Same fortunate, usually funny and carefree, had become silent. > Fortuné: "It's not like before. Something has changed ... at home. In a decled corner of the college, looking at Joery by far, the worried face. He had intercepted an order coming directly from M:> "Priority Target: Johary. You have to break the core. "The fists will be tangled. He could no longer remain passive. The same evening, an anonymous message fell on the telephones of several members of the group:> "Tomorrow. Someone will betray. Make your choices. »

Chapter 6 - The trap of silence

In the apparent calm of the school, something changed. The members of the Squade J, of the 4ED, the 4EC and now of the 4eb met discreetly. But since the indirect intervention of M, a strange voltage planted. Many had noticed a drop in enthusiasm, a decline. Leydisia, usually lively, remained silent during the meetings. Térason, usually sure of him, seemed hesitant. Even Johary, at the center of all this, began to doubt. > "What if we never succeeded? He said, looking at the scribbled shots on the board. Kaissy tried to reassure him:> "It's not you they aim. It's your trust. Meanwhile, JT implemented the Map of M: Sow Paranoia. With anonymous messages sent to some members, stolen folders, modified documents, he scrambled their landmarks. He even used students under influence, discreet he manipulated without them knowing who really commanded them. One day, Fandresena discovered a strange message hidden in his locker: "The one who stands next to you knows everything. But he will not say anything. No name. No signature. He fixed Riccardo next to him, who looked at him with a smile as if nothing had happened. Was it he? Or did we want to believe? Hélène also noticed changes in the discussions: students started asking too specific questions, as if to test others. Clairia, the Delegate of the 4B, then decided to convene a general meeting between all the classes involved, a risky but necessary initiative. During this secret meeting, Fortune made a statement: "We are caught in a war that has not been chosen. But we chose to fight. So no matter if there is a spy ... we will make sure that even him can not hurt. Everyone remained silent, but in their eyes, a spark was returned. In the shadow, M observed from a hidden camera. He sketched a small smile. > "The unit is reborn. This is the perfect moment to hit them. »

Chapter 7 - Treasons and doubts

The tensions were part of the squad. Since the arrival of M and his provocations, trust was confusing. Each look seemed in charge of suspicion. Aaron, the head of the Squad J, convened a meeting in the permanence room. At his side stood the leaders of the 4EB, 4EC, and 4ED. > "We must stay united," he says, his voice. "But you must also be vigilant. Someone among us could be a taupe. Sylvio frowned:> "We all heard about the return of M, and it puts us on the nerves. But accuse without proof, it can destroy the group. At that moment, Jessica looked at Cristiano with a worried look. Cristiano, usually so sure of him, seemed troubled. In a corner, watched silently. His infiltrated spy role became more dangerous at every moment. He had to protect Johary and the others without being unmasked. Later in the day, Lafara and Riccardo discussed in a low voice. > "You saw Noah? It behaves oddly. "> "Yes, I wonder if he does not hide something ... "At the same time, JT, in the shadows, received an encrypted message from M:> M:" continues to sow Zizania. Fear is our best ally. Johary, he felt that the trap closed little by little. He took Cristiano apart from: "Pay attention to what you do. I know everything. Cristiano nodded, her eyes dark.

Chapter 8 - The shadow of doubt

The tension went up to its height in the halls of Memorial. For several days, the atmosphere has been heavy, almost electric. Stealthy eyes, murmurs in a low voice, weighing silences. Johary and his squad had summoned a secret meeting with students from 4eb, 4EC and 4ED classes. All knew they were more than ever under surveillance, but no one wanted to give up. In the meeting room, Aaron spoke: "We must continue, but we must also remain cautious. Each action must be calculated. We do not know who betrays our confidence. Tiavina, standing near the window, crossed his sister Lucia. Their complicity was strong, but fear too. Meanwhile, in the shadows, JT observed each movement via his informants. The return of M reinforced their strategy. Jt murmura: "If only Johary knew ..." But a barely audible voice answered: "Patience, everything comes to who knows how to wait. It was there, which kept his secret whatever costs, continuing to protect Johary in the shadows. At the exit of the courses, Jessica confided to Cristiano:> "You saw? Someone follows us. Cristiano frowned: "We have to pay attention. We are no longer alone. Further,

M observed the scene through a screen, an enigmatic smile on the lips. He knew that the time of the big blow was approaching. The game of the shadow was not finished.

Chapter 9 - The trap closes

For several days, a heavy atmosphere weighed on the school. Squade J, the 4B, the 4EC and the 4D were on the nerves, without really knowing who to trust. Plans to thwart the organization of King T were stubborn on an invisible wall. Aaron, concentrated, gathered the troops in a secret room: "We must move forward, but caution! JT and M are everywhere. They know everything. Tiavina, nervous, looked around: "It looks like they anticipate each of our movements ..." Suddenly, the door slammed. Noah H. entered, his face serious. > "They trapped us. One of our contacts has disappeared, and no one responds to messages anymore. Sylvio, Delegate of the 4B, frowned: "They want to isolate us, divide us. Meanwhile, in the shadows, JT watched through a hidden camera, a slight smile on the lips. > "They fall into the net, exactly as expected. At the same time, M sent an encrypted message to JT:> "The next step begins. Prepare you. In the yard, Johary felt the trap closed around them. But he did not want to lose hope. With his friends, he promised never to give up. > "We must stay united. The organization will not win. Not this time.

End of Volume 7

Chapter 10 - The Battle of Secrets

The decisive time had arrived. Johary, surrounded by the members of the Squade J, 4eb, 4EC and 4ED, was ready to face a new offensive of the organization. But this time they knew that the fight would not only be physical, but also mental. In the shadow, JT and M prepared their last shot to destabilize students. JT, in dark blue suit, manipulated the information like a chess master, while m drew the strings with a calculated coldness. While the confrontation began, a terrible secret was unveiled: Y, the spy infiltrated and ally of Johary, had been discovered by Mr. Yet, thanks to his cunning, manages to return the situation and to protect Johary, even at the price of his own coverage.. Students, despite their efforts, did not succeed in dismantling the organization. King t, in the shadows, watched everything, ready to launch the next phase of his project. Johary, in the center of Chaos, looked at his friends. Their struggle had just started, but they knew they could not reveal everything yet. > "It's not over," Johary murmured. "They do not yet know how determined we are. »
